

Program Learning Outcomes for Master's In Education (M.Ed.) Educational Leadership
Program Non-Licensure (May 2023)

3. Demonstrate a solid knowledge base, sophisticated relationships with stakeholders that support the mission, set clear directions and to make informed choices and decisions for the growth of students, and the success of all staff.
4. Make nurturing and sustaining contributions to the community informed by recognition of continuous learning for self, high expectations for students and staff, and of the demand for increased levels of performance in all areas to promote student learning.
5. Establishes operational systems, procedures and routes to create an effective learning environment using sound fiscal planning, curriculum, staffing and scheduling.
6. Further the knowledge of leadership and related education through producing, and communicating research to
  3. EDLE 547 Designing
  4. EDLE 541 Managing
  5. EDL

- E 566 School Plant Planning
6. EDLE 530 Research Applications

7. EDLE 511 Ed Leadership & Managerial Effectiveness
8. EDLE 578 Curriculum Improvement
9. Two courses (6 credits) in electives from any of the 500-level graduate courses offered in the College of Education and Health Sciences, as approved by program advisor.